ABOUT THE MUSICIANS

Born in Ukraine, Anna Antropova graduated with a Master's degree in Viola performance from Glinka State Conservatory of Nizhny Novgorod, Russia. She started her professional career with the National Opera and Ballet Theatre in Nizhny Novgorod (Russia) and the Ukrainian National Philharmonic Orchestra, touring throughout Russia, Ukraine, Germany, Switzerland, Spain, Poland and France. Ms. Antropova has performed as a soloist across Canada and the USA and works with numerous orchestras and chamber ensembles throughout Ontario, including the Toronto Philharmonia, the Toronto Concert Orchestra, Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra, Niagara Symphony, Sinfonia Toronto, Ontario Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Sioux City Symphony Orchestra.

Yaroslav (Yarek) Tereshchenko, a native of Ukraine, studied violin performance and music education at the M. Glinka Music College in Dnipropetrovsk, Ukraine and later at Lviv State Music Institute in Lviv, Ukraine. In the United States, Yaroslav earned a Masters of Music degree from Lionel Hampton School of Music, University of Idaho.

During his performance career, Yaroslav has played violin with orchestras appearing in various venues throughout Ukraine, Germany, France, Belgium, Hungary and the United States.

As a concert violinist, Yarek Tereshchenko has performed with many orchestras, including the Utica Symphony in Utica, NY, and the Yakima Symphony and Spokane Symphony, both in Washington state. In Connecticut, he has performed with the Bridgeport Symphony, Waterbury Symphony, Wallingford Symphony and Ridgefield Symphony Orchestras. He is the former Concertmaster of the Nutmeg Symphony Orchestra in Bristol, Connecticut.

Yaroslav is currently violin faculty at the Omaha Conservatory of Music in Omaha, Nebraska, and has taught at Lewis-Clark State College, Lewiston, Idaho; the University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho; the University of Connecticut Community School of the Arts, Storrs, Connecticut; and at Three Rivers Community College, Norwich, Connecticut. During his tenure at Three Rivers Community College, Yaroslav taught Music History and Music Appreciation for seven years.
