

A LITTLE DINNER MUSIC

SMOKE GETS IN YOUR EYES

MAR
13

STARRING:

STEVE GOMEZ

STAN
HARPER

ABOUT THE MUSICIANS

Steve Gomez

A jazz bassist for over 30 years, Steve has played with the likes of Dizzy Gillespie, the Omaha Big Band and Luigi Inc. He has been a fixture in the pit orchestra for most of the musicals produced at the Omaha Community Playhouse since 1991. He also toured with Billy McGuigan from 2002 to 2010, performing a Buddy Holly tribute show. A teacher of both youth and adults, Steve has assisted in conducting workshops and band camps in the Omaha schools and regional colleges. When not performing, Steve enjoys cooking, and listening to music with his wife, daughter and cat.

Stan Harper

Stan has played saxophone and taught music in the Omaha metro for over 25 years. He received his Bachelors degree in music education in 1996 from UNO. Currently he teaches from his private studio as well as vocal music for the Omaha Public Schools.

As a musician, Stan is currently a member of Bluehouse with the Rent to Own Horns, and the Omaha Big Band. He has shared the stage with Connor Oberst of Bright Eyes, Steve Allen, Lou Rawls, The Supremes, The Temptations, The Four Tops, The Jim Widner Big Band, the Nebraska Jazz Orchestra, Luigi Waites, Bob Mintzer, Dave Pietro, Chip McNeal, Kim Richmond, Dave Scott, Tom Kubis, Scott Whitfield, Claudio Roditi, Wayne Bergeron, Steve Raybine and others. Also keeping a busy freelance schedule, he has recently played for theatrical productions of Beehive, Nunsense, Fame, and "grew up" touring with the Broadway show Anything Goes.